

PODGASMIC Arouse Your Pleasure Centers

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Ever Had it in the Ear?

1/7/2006 (Montclair, NJ) ER Flynn Productions, maker of Rubberroom Pornaments, has expanded their pursuit of the risqué with the release of an audio album entitled "PODGASMIC: Arouse Your Pleasure Centers."

Produced in the style of old time radio dramas, backed by alluring music and rich sound-effects, PODGASMIC is a mix of adult burlesque humor and erotica that invites the listener into a world of fetish, fantasy and sexual abandon.

"PODGASMIC: AROUSE YOUR PLEASURE CENTERS" is a collection of erotic stories originally written and produced as mp3 love letters sent by E.R to his beloved Babycakes while they were on opposite coasts during one long cold winter.

Eventually these stories evolved into "the Rubberroom Erotic Podgasmic Podcast" which was enjoyed by not just the beautiful but lonely Babycakes, but by several thousand other people! Shortly after the frigid winter snows melted into spring, E.R. and Babycakes were joyfully reunited. They then set upon recreating their erotic interludes in full and sexy stereophonic sound to bring laughter to lovers and help comfort the forlorn.

"PODGASMIC: Arouse Your Pleasure Centers" has also spawned other planned releases, each catering to a different sexual theme. Currently in the works are Lesbian and SM-themed PODGASMIC albums, due out in late 2006.

"PODGASMIC: Arouse Your Pleasure Centers" is currently available from cdbaby.com and podgasmic.com, where you can also hear sample mp3s and subscribe to the "Rubberroom Erotic Podgasmic Podcast."
